

What is an adverb?

The relationship between verbs and adverbs is similar to the one between nouns and adjectives.

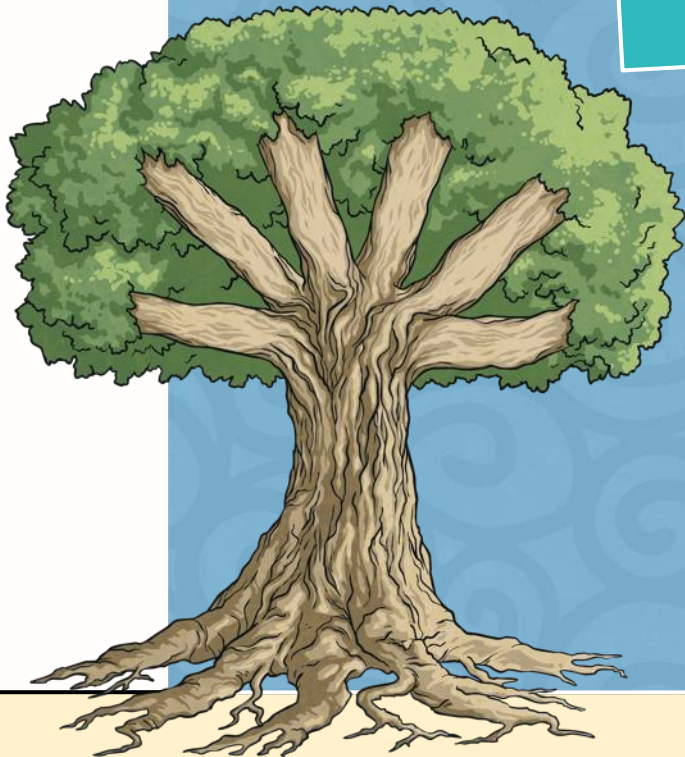

The adverbs and adjectives work hard to tell us more about the verbs and nouns beside them.

What is an adverb?

We can also use adverbs to tell us where an action takes place.

The roots of the tree were below the soil.

What is an adverb?

Many adverbs describe verbs by telling us how an action happens:

He ran quickly to the bus.

quickly

slowly

loudly

happily

softly

quietly

sadly

carefully

playfully
